

Dear Sirs,

I have been an XM Radio subscriber for the last few months and value the ability to listen to quality radio programming that is not available in many locations. Since I pay for this service I would expect that the programming would not be regulated by the National Association of Broadcasters. I would urge the Federal Communications Commission to reject the NAB's petition 04-160.

Sincerely,

Patrick Cagle